

WOODSIDE VILLAS KASAULI

THROUGH THE YEAR ESCAPE

BY ANISHA MALIK

SUNLIGHT CHRONICLE, NEW DELHI

"Am on the top of the world looking down on creation, and the only explanation I can find, is everything that I experience, breathe and live while I am here".

Woodside villas is an escape for those wanting to spend time with their families, or loved ones, or rather you could just come in solo !

Lush green alpines, some foggy groovy roads, all leading to these beautiful luxe villas in Kasauli. An option of 2-3-4 BHK villas to choose from, with different inspirational interiors and architecture.

The infinity pool has my heart; the pool has its edges facing and touching the boundaries of a hill top, it only makes you watch wonders!

A perfect staycation; and in the new era of Travel, I'd say its a blissful home away from home.

A four story building, is a story in itself!

Each floor with a surprise; the rooms, kitchen, and the dining area, perfectly placed to make you feel comfortable, and peaceful.

Discover the experience that really fills in your soul with wind the chimes, sunlight that surpasses, and trees that whisper with the sound of their intersecting leaves.

Woodside villas also have a clubhouse, on the hill top which offers a spa / massage, tea and coffee menus, play area for kids and a million dollar view from the bench that faces the hills.

The most apt time to visit is almost all the time, because be it summer, the monsoons or the winter; its going to be bring surprises with sunlight, rain, and snow maybe !

Each villa promises a great stay - warm, comforting, ideal for working remotely, and even just to relax, with no plans at all.
